
Dashed curves are predictions, not new measurements. Rejected clipped blocks are excluded from plotted phasors; small-signal linearity remains to be checked.